NEW closing date and time: 6 February 2020 2pm EST

A. Questions from Industry and answers from Canada:

Question - Regarding application of 2 goat herds and 2 milk licenses currently being merged into a new company. The question is how to proceed with submitting a tender when one of the two facilities will no longer be operating and the new company will have a new joint milk license?

Response – In regards to your enquiry, Canada will evaluate bids from corporate successors to a bidder where the bidder is able to demonstrate a clear line of succession and that the corporate successor can demonstrate that the knowledge and experience required by any mandatory and point rated technical criteria will be met by the corporate successor. It is the bidders sole responsibility to understand all requirements detailed in the Request for Proposal in order that their bid submission be considered compliant in all regards.
